- ☐ Document(s) were located which originated with, or contained information concerning, other Government Agency (ies) [OGA].
- ☐ This information has been referred to the OGA(s) for review and direct response to you.
- ☐ We are consulting with another agency. The FBI will correspond with you regarding this information when the consultation is completed.
- ☐ In accordance with standard FBI practice and pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(7)(E) and Privacy Act exemption (j)(2) [5 U.S.C. § 552/552a (b)(7)(E)/(j)(2)], this response neither confirms nor denies the existence of your subject's name on any watch lists.

For your information, Congress excluded three discrete categories of law enforcement and national security records from the requirements of the FOIA. See 5 U.S.C. § 552(c) (2006 & Supp. IV (2010)). This response is limited to those records that are subject to the requirements of the FOIA. This is a standard notification that is given to all our requesters and should not be taken as an indication that excluded records do, or do not, exist. Enclosed for your information is a copy of the Explanation of Exemptions.

For questions regarding our determinations, visit the www.fbi.gov/foia website under "Contact Us."

The FOIPA Request Number listed above has been assigned to your request. Please use this number in all correspondence concerning your request. Your patience is appreciated.

You may file an appeal by writing to the Director, Office of Information Policy (OIP), United States Department of Justice, Suite 11050, 1425 New York Avenue, NW, Washington, D.C. 20530-0001, or you may submit an appeal through OIP's FOIAonline portal by creating an account on the following website: <https://foiaonline.regulations.gov/foia/action/public/home>. Your appeal must be postmarked or electronically transmitted within ninety (90) days from the date of this letter in order to be considered timely. If you submit your appeal by mail, both the letter and the envelope should be clearly marked "Freedom of Information Act Appeal." Please cite the FOIPA Request Number assigned to your request so that it may be easily identified.

You may seek dispute resolution services by contacting the Office of Government Information Services (OGIS) at 877-684-6448, or by emailing ogis@nara.gov. Alternatively, you may contact the FBI's FOIA Public Liaison by emailing foipaquestions@fbi.gov. If you submit your dispute resolution correspondence by email, the subject heading should clearly state "Dispute Resolution Services." Please also cite the FOIPA Request Number assigned to your request so that it may be easily identified.

☐ The enclosed material is from the main investigative file(s) in which the subject(s) of your request was the focus of the investigation. Our search located additional references, in files relating to other individuals, or matters, which may or may not be about your subject(s). Our experience has shown when ident, references usually contain information similar to the information processed in the main file(s). Because of our significant backlog, we have given priority to processing only the main investigative file(s). If you want the references, you must submit a separate request for them in writing, and they will be reviewed at a later date, as time and resources permit.

☒ See additional information which follows.

Sincerely,

David M. Hardy

Enclosures (2)

The enclosed documents represent the first and final interim release of information responsive to your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request.

This material is being provided to you at no charge.

EXPLANATION OF EXEMPTIONS

SUBSECTIONS OF TITLE 5, UNITED STATES CODE, SECTION 552

- (b)(1) (A) specifically authorized under criteria established by an Executive order to be kept secret in the interest of national defense or foreign policy and (B) are in fact properly classified to such Executive order;
- (b)(2) related solely to the internal personnel rules and practices of an agency;
- (b)(3) specifically exempted from disclosure by statute (other than section 552b of this title), provided that such statute (A) requires that the matters be withheld from the public in such a manner as to leave no discretion on issue, or (B) establishes particular criteria for withholding or refers to particular types of matters to be withheld;
- (b)(4) trade secrets and commercial or financial information obtained from a person and privileged or confidential;
- (b)(5) inter-agency or intra-agency memorandums or letters which would not be available by law to a party other than an agency in litigation with the agency;
- (b)(6) personnel and medical files and similar files the disclosure of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy;
- (b)(7) records or information compiled for law enforcement purposes, but only to the extent that the production of such law enforcement records or information ( A ) could reasonably be expected to interfere with enforcement proceedings, ( B ) would deprive a person of a right to a fair trial or an impartial adjudication, ( C ) could reasonably be expected to constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy, ( D ) could reasonably be expected to disclose the identity of confidential source, including a State, local, or foreign agency or authority or any private institution which furnished information on a confidential basis, and, in the case of record or information compiled by a criminal law enforcement authority in the course of a criminal investigation, or by an agency conducting a lawful national security intelligence investigation, information furnished by a confidential source, ( E ) would disclose techniques and procedures for law enforcement investigations or prosecutions, or would disclose guidelines for law enforcement investigations or prosecutions if such disclosure could reasonably be expected to risk circumvention of the law, or ( F ) could reasonably be expected to endanger the life or physical safety of any individual;
- (b)(8) contained in or related to examination, operating, or condition reports prepared by, on behalf of, or for the use of an agency responsible for the regulation or supervision of financial institutions; or
- (b)(9) geological and geophysical information and data, including maps, concerning wells.

SUBSECTIONS OF TITLE 5, UNITED STATES CODE, SECTION 552a

- (d)(5) information compiled in reasonable anticipation of a civil action proceeding;
- (j)(2) material reporting investigative efforts pertaining to the enforcement of criminal law including efforts to prevent, control, or reduce crime or apprehend criminals;
- (k)(1) information which is currently and properly classified pursuant to an Executive order in the interest of the national defense or foreign policy, for example, information involving intelligence sources or methods;
- (k)(2) investigatory material compiled for law enforcement purposes, other than criminal, which did not result in loss of a right, benefit or privilege under Federal programs, or which would identify a source who furnished information pursuant to a promise that his/her identity would be held in confidence;
- (k)(3) material maintained in connection with providing protective services to the President of the United States or any other individual pursuant to the authority of Title 18, United States Code, Section 3056;
- (k)(4) required by statute to be maintained and used solely as statistical records;
- (k)(5) investigatory material compiled solely for the purpose of determining suitability, eligibility, or qualifications for Federal civilian employment or for access to classified information, the disclosure of which would reveal the identity of the person who furnished information pursuant to a promise that his/her identity would be held in confidence;
- (k)(6) testing or examination material used to determine individual qualifications for appointment or promotion in Federal Government service the release of which would compromise the testing or examination process;
- (k)(7) material used to determine potential for promotion in the armed services, the disclosure of which would reveal the identity of the person who furnished the material pursuant to a promise that his/her identity would be held in confidence.

It is noted that the book "The Federal Reserve Bank" has been charged out of the Library of Congress and will not be available for at least three weeks.

The card catalog at the Library of Congress which lists all the books which the Library maintains contains no record of the following two books:

- 1) "The Capitalist Conspiracy" by EDWARD GRIFFIN.
- 2) "The Naked Capitalist" by W. CLEON SKOUSEN.

It is noted that the Library of Congress had a book entitled "The Naked Communist" by W. CLEON SKOUSEN. A review of this book revealed that there was no reference made to the nominee in the entire book. JOHN D. ROCKEFELLER was referred to in that during the middle part of the year 1919 he was one of 36 prominent people to whom bombs were sent in the mail, allegedly by Communists.

NM Jim Rowley, Director of the Secret Service, telephoned this morning and spoke with SA Stapleton. He said he had just received a telegram from Ann Whitman, former personal secretary to President Eisenhower, who is now Governor Nelson A. Rockefeller's secretary, asking if he would make the necessary arrangements for two of Mrs. Rockefeller's daughters and their young son,  to be conducted on a FBI tour while they are in Washington during Cherry Blossom week. According to Mr. Rowley, the three children would be accompanied by  former New York State police officer. Mr. Rowley indicated that probably Mrs. Rockefeller would also be along although at this time it could not be said definitely that she would be able to make the FBI visit.

Arrangements have been made for the Rockefeller party to come to the Director's Reception Room at 10:00 a. m. on April 1, 1971. Mr. Rowley asked that his warm regards be given to Mr. Hoover. He was assured that this would be done and that the Rockefeller party would be handled very specially at the time of their FBI visit. There was no request to meet the Director.

RECOMMENDATION:

That a Special Agent of the Crime Records Division be assigned to conduct the Rockefeller party on a very special tour of our facilities at the above-indicated time.

I shall meet them at 10 a.m. April 1.

aka Margaretta Fidler Rockefeller
The Director has noted on our memorandum of March 25, 1971, concerning the visit of Mrs. Nelson A. Rockefeller and her party, "I shall meet them at 10 a.m. April 1. H" This appointment has been confirmed with Mrs. Ann Whitman, personal secretary to Governor Rockefeller through Jim Rowley, Director of Secret Service who had telephoned to make the original arrangements. Mr. Rowley stated that he received the definite impression after talking with Mrs. Whitman, that Mrs. Rockefeller would make the FBI visit, especially in view of the Director's courtesy in seeing the party at the time of their tour.

NY
DC
NY 4964
Mrs. Whitman told Mr. Rowley that in addition to Mrs. Rockefeller the group would consist of the Governor's and her young son, [redacted] her daughter by a previous marriage, [redacted] and a friend of hers, [redacted] both of whom are [redacted] As previously indicated, the group will also be accompanied by [redacted] formerly of the New York State Police.

BY APPROX 1960
Governor Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York has long been known to the Director on a first-name basis. He is on our Special Correspondents List. Bufiles reflect that in May, 1963, Governor Rockefeller married the former Margaretta Fidler Murphy and resides with her and their two minor children, [redacted] at the family estate at Pocantico Hills, New York. The Governor also maintains a residence at 810 Fifth Avenue, New York City. Available public source information reflects that Mrs. Rockefeller was formerly married to Dr. James Slater Murphy; that she is originally from Philadelphia and an heiress in her own right to a $4 million fortune.

Re: Meeting with the Director and Special Tour

She won the nickname, "Happy," at the Shipley School, a fashionable girls' school in Bryn Mawr, Pennsylvania. Bufiles contain no identifiable, derogatory information concerning Mrs. Rockefeller and a search of the files of the Identification Division disclose no arrest record. There is no indication that Mrs. Rockefeller has ever been photographed with the Director or received a copy of one of his photographs. The files of the Director's Office contained no information concerning her.

Major [redacted] retired from the New York State Police in December, 1970, after 25 years of service. Major [redacted] had been in charge of the Governor's detail since April, 1948. Bufiles contain no derogatory information concerning him and SAC, Albany has reported that he is well and favorably known to that office.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

Thank you very much for sending me two copies of "The Investigator". It was extremely thoughtful of you, and Nelson adds his thanks to mine. We are both most appreciative of your thought of us.

Again, many thanks,

Sincerely,

Mrs. Nelson X Rockefeller
